Dear Dr. Spots -

I was so sorry to have missed you - and I thank you so much for leaving the paintings at my house -

I agree with you - the one of me is something quite special - when you wrote me about it - I was surprised that you thought well of it - the only paintings I have seen of my husband, children and me have all been awful shiny things copied from magazine covers - This man is truly sensitive

2) I hope you will tell him how touched I am by his sensibility -

And the engraving of the bull fighter - (It is at the framer now - and your letter is somewhere in the confusion after Paris wedding so I don't remember his name tonight - but I always will when his picture comes back)

I love it so much - I am making a great sacrifice + letting John have it in his room
- we took it to the framer together - as he too loved it on sight - his current hero is El Cordobes - and he begged me to put it in his room - I am so pleased that he appreciated it.

I almost wish I had not taken my children to Argentina - Instead of being grateful - they think I am cruel not to take them to live permanently at San Miguel!

3)

Thank you again more than I can express - for your great thoughtfulness -

Sincerely
Jacquie Kennedy
