Dear Mr. Squirrel -

Thank you for all your help and care - in so many things - but especially helping me with my halting words in Spanish -

I hope I won't disgrace you -

I am so happy to be going to your country - I never thought my husband was nostalgic for anything but the sea - but he used to describe the pampas to me - Maybe he loved them because they were like a sea -

I shall remember your words about ganar - not in Argentine - but always -

I wish I had learned that word about ten years ago!

Thank you again -

I feel so badly about the Paraguayan Mantilla - I found it tonight when I came home from the country - Please don't blame my mother - only the confusion that I have lived in for the last year or so -

When something comes with love, as that did, I feel terribly if I can't tell the person that I understand their thought -

I hope I shall see you on my return -

Sincerely

April, 1966
